CANADAS & WESTERN STATES!
—BY—
Train & Co's Line.

ENOCH TRAIN & CO., Proprietors of the Boston and Liverpool Line of Packets, hereby give notice that they have made extensive arrangements with the Western Rail Road Corporations, in connection with the Rail Roads in the Western States, and Steamboats on the Lakes, for the forwarding of pre-paid passengers from Boston to the Canadas and Western States; and are now selling at their office in Boston, and at their authorized agencies, pre paid certificates of passage as follows:

"	" Cincinnati, O.,	24 00
"	" Chicago, Ill.,	25 00
"	" St. Louis, Mo.,	28 00
"	" Milwaukee, Wis.,	25 00

Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above-named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Splendid Line of Packets; provisions at sea according to the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steerage passenger of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two oz. of Tea; 8 oz. of Sugar; 5 lbs. of Oatmeal; 2½ lbs navy bread; 1 lb. wheat flour; 2 lbs rice.

Children under twelve years of age (not including infants,) are furnished with six pounds of bread stuffs per week, the usual allowance of water, and half allowance of Tea and Sugar.

As soon as our Liverpool House informs us per steamer of the names of pre-paid passengers embarked, we publish their names in the Boston Pilot, and also notify each purchaser of pre-paid certificates, either directly or through our agents.

On the arrival of any of our ships in the outer harbor, we immediately dispatch an agent on board, to give prepaid passengers the necessary instructions regarding their route westward.

Bedding and utensils for eating and drinking, must be provided by passengers; and those going to the Canadas, or Western States, must furnish their own provisions from Boston.

TRAIN & CO., of Boston, inform those who take an interest in the welfare of Immigrants, that as owners of the only LIVERPOOL and BOSTON LINE OF PACKETS, they have determined that their Immigration business shall be conducted in their own name, on their own responsibility, and by themselves or their immediate servants.

In calling public attention to the subjoined list of the Ships which comprise our Boston Line of Packets, we believe that its general reputation as the first of American Lines is sufficiently well known and established. The Thousands of Letters which have been sent by American Immigrants to their friends in every part of Europe, have borne ample testimony to the rapid and successful passages made by those Ships, and to the superior Health, Comfort and Safety which their Passengers have hitherto enjoyed. Many of them will be recognized as vessels which have gained the very highest character, by a succession of unusual rapid passages.

Packet Ships which are dispatched in this LINE:

STAR OF EMPIRE,	Capt. BROWN,
WESTERN STAR,	" THAYER,
FRANK PIERCE,	" MARCY,
PRESIDENT,	" CUMMINGS,
CHARIOT OF FAME,	" KNOWLES,

NORTH AMERICA,	" DUNBAR,
DAN'L WEBSTER,	" HOWARD,
PLYMOUTH ROCK,	" CALDWELL,
SUNBEAM,	" PUTNAM,
LEVI WOODBURY,	" NICKERSON.

These Ships, when in the Line, sail from Boston on the 5th of each month, and from Liverpool each week during the year, and are distinguished by a Red Flag with a White Diamond.

OFFICES:
Enoch Train & Co., Nos. 37 and 38 Lewis Wharf, Boston, Massachusetts.
Train & Co., Merchants, No. 5 India Buildings, Water St., Liverpool, Eng.
Train & Co., Passage Office, Nos. 118 & 119, Waterloo Road, Liverpool, Eng.
Train & Co., No. 121 St. Patrick Street, Cork, Ireland.

These magnificent Ships are ALL AMERICAN BUILT and constructed expressly for Packets. They are all NEW and of the FIRST Class, being built on the most improved principles and of the best materials. They possess all the modern improvements which conduce to health and comfort, as a superior system of lighting and ventilating, the very best Provisions, and a careful medical superintendence.

The Captains have been carefully selected as first-rate sailors and men of humanity, and an experienced Surgeon is attached to each Ship, and no expense is spared to render this the best and most popular conveyance to America. As Train & Co. have made such arrangements in Liverpool as will PROTECT their friends from the frauds and impositions sometimes practiced there, they believe that those who pre-pay passages cannot but see the advantage of being able to engage with a Respectable House, on favorable terms, for a well known Line of Magnificent Packet Ships, and in this way avoid the disrespect, annoyance and delay which they so often experience, when they engage with Agents who are but slightly connected with transient Ships.

As a proof that their Immigration business is conducted on principles uniformly Honorable and Humane, and that they have been distinguished for the most exact fulfilment of all their engagements, we are permitted to refer to the very Rev. THEOBALD MATHEW, Cork, Ireland.

We also subjoin the following testimonial from the Right Reverend JOHN BERNARD FITZPATRICK, D. D., Bishop, Cathedral, Boston.

(COPY.)
Boston, January 22d, 1849.

"I am happy to testify, from personal knowledge, that the firm of Ship Owners, known in this City of Boston, under the name of ENOCH TRAIN & CO, is composed of gentlemen of tried and acknowledged integrity, and that implicit reliance can be placed in their fidelity to accomplish all that they may promise, to those who have occasion to make any contract with them.
(Signed) † JOHN B. FITZPATRICK,
Bishop of Boston.

A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS'S HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man.—It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the medical profession. [See certificates in hands of Agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor, passing into all the air cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by any other medicine. Here is a case of

ASTHMA CURED.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 20th, 1853.

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in a bed, getting what rest I could sitting in my chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis's Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffering for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued it with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is,—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
NEW YORK, Dec. 27th, 1852.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; when I reached this city, my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a great deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; had pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life.—Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it. JOHN WOOD.

The Greatest Discovery of the Age.

PROFESSOR WOOD OFFERS FOR SALE A perfect HAIR RESTORATIVE: it will in a short time restore the Hair which has become gray permanently to its original color—bring it out where it is gone, and arrest it where it is falling off—clean the head of the dandruff and itching—removes all cutaneous eruptions, and renders the scalp perfectly healthy by restoring the secretive organs to their original vigor and strength, and thus supply nutriment and coloring matter to it. It does not color the hair, but is, in short, a perfect Hair Invigorator and Tonic—in proof of which he will select from among the mass the following Certificates, viz:—

STATE OF ILLINOIS,
CARLYLE, June 27th, 1853.

I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his "Restorative," it has resumed its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently so. SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 15, 1852.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir:—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have for several years been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use, will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring either the hands which apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair. WILSON KING.

ST. LOUIS, June 29, 1853.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir:—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months since, very gray, and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative it assumed its original color; and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied that those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the hair not only its original color, but it gives it the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair.
H. L. STEWART.

The following certificates speak for themselves, as the gentlemen whose signatures are attached, are known to thousands:—

ST. LOUIS, September 20, 1852.

Dr. O. J. Wood—Sir:—I have used nearly two bottles of your Hair Restorative, and have found its effects very satisfactory. It has entirely destroyed all dandruff from my head and has restored my hair to its original color, which had become quite gray. WM. TRUESDAIL.

ST. LOUIS, September 29, 1852.

Dear Sir: By the advice of a friend of mine, who had been using your Hair Restorative, I was induced to try it, discovering, to my great astonishment, that my friend's hair, which, when I last saw him before, was very gray, had been completely restored to its original color, having a fine glossy appearance as it had when I knew him twenty years ago.

I commenced using the Restorative about five weeks ago, and am perfectly convinced that it will produce the desired effect, it having restored the color of my hair, more than half of which was white, to precisely the same it was when I was twenty years old, with the same healthy and glossy appearance. I have no hesitation in recommending it to my friends and the public generally, believing that if used according to directions they will not be disappointed.
Yours, very respectfully,
N. H. HOLMAN.

BRASSFIELD, June 16, 1852.

Prof Wood—Dear Sir: Since you request me to give you a statement of the effects of your wonderful Restorative upon me, I cheerfully state, in reply, that I have now used three bottles of it; and although my hair when I commenced its use was a silvery white (my age being sixty-four,) in one month's time it had resumed precisely its original color and so perfect that my friends all thought I looked twenty years younger than usual, and scarcely knew what to make of what they considered a perfect miracle, until I informed them it was but the result of an invention of yours called Hair Restorative. I will also state that I was much troubled with dandruff and itching, particularly when in perspiration; but it only required three or four applications to remove all dandruff and itching; and although my hair had fallen off until I was somewhat bald, I now have as fine a head of hair, both in color, softness and lustre, as I had when but a youth, and quite as abundant. It is proper for me to state that I commenced its use in August last, and used none since January. I have no doubt therefore but what the change is a permanent one; I can therefore recommend it as the most wonderful discovery of the age in which we live. S. M. RANDALL.

Extract of a letter from R. Thorn, Sheriff of La Salt county, Illinois:

OTTAWA, Ill., August 21, 1853.

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Yours of June 21st, accompanied by a bottle of your Hair Restorative, was received. I very soon thereafter commenced using it, and it has entirely restored my hair to its natural youthful color.—There is considerable inquiry for the article, &c.
Very respectfully, yours, R. THORN.

U. S. SENATOR.—Late advices from Madison [illegible] that the project of going into an election of U. S. Senator at this Session is about to be renewed, and attempts are made to dragoon the [illegible] among the democracy into its support. [illegible], gentlemen! the people at home are [illegible].

Let the People Speak.

The only hope of defeating the iniquitous violation of the Missouri Compromise now seems to [illegible] speedy and plain talk on the part of of the people to their servants at Washington; and there is yet time to talk to the members of the House of Representatives. To this end petitions are in circulation to-day in our city, in the following form;

To the Senate and House of Representatives, in Congress assembled:

The undersigned, citizens of——— ——— in the State of Wisconsin, earnestly remonstrate against the passage of any bill which shall permit the introduction of Slavery into any of the Territories of the United States, to which the provisions of the Missouri Compromise extend, to-wit: all north of the line of 36 degrees, 30 minutes. They cannot but feel that any such bill would be a violation of obligations which should be sacred—a violation of a contract which the Free States have religiously obeyed. And your petitioners, as in duty bound to themselves and their country, will ever pray.

Copies of this petition may be found at various places throughout the city, and we hope that they will be signed and collected immediately, so as to be forwarded to Washington without delay.

Our friends in the country, who are interested in preserving the free territories from the curse of slavery will do well to copy the above form, or prepare a better one, and after obtaining signatures, to forward the petition to these members at Washington. Let the voice of Wisconsin be [illegible] speedily!

A Brilliant Project.

The Treaty which the President has approved [illegible] slight modification, and sent to the Senate for confirmation, it having been concocted between Gadsden, of South Carolina, and Santa [illegible] a brilliant effort of diplomatic skill, certainly. Besides providing for the payment, by the U. S., of large amounts of Mexican indebtedness, it proposes to pay Mexico $20,000,000 for [illegible] square miles of wild, desert land below the present boundary line, or at the rate of 52 cents per acre. And what for? Why, on our part to bleed the treasury to a vast amount, so as to buy a supposed Southern railroad route to the Pacific; and on Santa Anna's part, to fill his exhausted coffers, and thus enable him to set up the machinery of a monarchy on this continent.— Such business that for a "democratic" administration to be engaged in.

JUDICIAL.—GEO. W. CATE, Esqr. of Stevens' Point, announces himself in the last number of the Pinery, as an independent candidate for the office of Judge of the new 7th circuit, composed of Adams, Marathon, Portage, Waupacca, and Waushara counties.

It was frequently said, while the bill establishing this district was on its way through the Legislature, that "it was made for Mr. Cate." It now remains to be seen whether the people will carry out the contract. Mr. Cate is a young man of fine natural abilities, energetic, and of industrious habits, and may make a good judge.— His youth is against him, but "that will wear off probably, as he grows older."

In the 3d district, we understand that Judge [illegible] L. ROSE, of Dodge County, an able and popular man will be a candidate.

☞ The News seems to take very much to heart the terms of indignation in which we, in common with other northern papers not bound with party chains to drag along any load which the administration may impose upon them, have spoken of Senator Douglas and his bill of abominations. There are three sorts of opinions about them. The South loves the treason, while it despises the traitor—the News and its kind love both treason and traitor—while we, with the great majority of northern people and press, abhor both. Of course each of us will take the liberty of expressing our opinions as we see fit.

☞ Our male specimens of humanity will have to go at once into a course of training for the posterior portion of their lower legs.— Late Paris correspondence assures the Eastern papers that knee breeches are determined upon by the authorities in that quarter. The narrow pantaloons and buckles upon the shoes, have only been insidious practices upon the innocence of our imitative race. Lean men ought to hold a convention, and utter a protest which will carry terror into the saloons of the Tuilleries, and reach the ear of the Empress, the arbitress of fashion.

☞ Our friends of the country press are overwhelming us with obligations fo the friendly feelings expressed in such notices as the following:

A WELL-DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The business men of Milwaukee have tendered the compliment of a Public Dinner to the proprietors of the Sentinel for their energy and public enterprise in furnishing them with the latest news, market reports, &c. The Sentinel is, without doubt, the best paper in the State, and well deserves this [illegible] the hands of the Milwaukee people.—[illegible] Advocate.

The business men of Milwaukee have tendered the publishers of the Sentinel a Public Dinner —a compliment well deserved.—Appleton Crescent.

EMIGRATION AGENT.—We learn that Speaker Horn is quite likely to be sold, as to his hopes of obtaining the appointment of Emigrant Agent, even if the bill passes, which is quite doubtful.— [illegible], of Rock Co., is said to have the refusal of the office from the Governor. Mr. HORN is expected to submit to the powers that be without winking.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.—The National Intelligencer of Wednesday, says "we are glad to see that by the energy of Senator Badger, operating on the just disposition of the Senate, a bill which he introduced on Monday, appropriating $200,000 for the further improvement of Cape Fear river, was taken up, promptly passed, and sent to the other House, where we trust it will meet with equal favor."

Cape Fear river, however, is on the Atlantic coast, and in a slave state, so that the appropriation is entirely constitutional. If it was a Western river, now, and in a free state, the case would be different.

BLEEDING. The Sheboygan Journal very disinterestedly urges upon the Fond du Lac people not to aid in building a railroad to Milwaukee, lest they be "bled to death." Our neighbors on Lake Winnebago would very much like that depleting operation, we fancy.

Legislative Matters.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

Madison, Feb'y. 21st, '54.

Editors of the Sentinel:

I have forfeited my claim to Yankeeship, by guessing on the Dane county court bill. The Senate, to-day, receded from their amendment and the bill becomes a law, unless it should receive a check in the third house, which it is not likely. I confess I have not paid much attention to this measure, but I cannot appreciate its necessity, and it is quite obvious that the people of the county do not desire any such thing. What the friends of the measure propose to do in regard to it now, I am not informed, and will not guess again. It cannot operate extensively in its present form. Cases below $20,000 must go to the circuit, and only three above those sum can go up to the county court.

The Senate ordered to a third reading the bill to restore the death penalty, and passed the liquor bill with the amendments referred to yesterday—so there will be a mixed fight on it in the Assembly, and between friends and foes, and between one house and the other, it would not be strange if the whole subject should go by the board. Aside from these items, the action of the Senate was unimportant.

A long day in the Assembly, and but little of general interest done. The Speaker laid before the Assembly a communication or report from the Merchants Mutual Insurance Company of Milwaukee; which was laid on the table and ordered to be printed. Two or three petitions relating to unimportant local matters, closed this order of business.

Mr. Worthington moved a reconsideration of the vote rejecting the bill to pay the Kenosha City Gards, his object being to gratify the friends of the bill by allowing it to take the usual course. The motion was carried and Mr. Hale asked that the bill might be laid on the table. The Speaker informed the gentleman from Kenosha that the bill would go to the bottom of the file, and by its regular course would lie on the table for six weeks at least.

I failed to notice a resolution introduced by Mr. Knowlton, on yesterday, for a select committee to inquire whether there was any law of this state authorizing the business of banking. It came up this morning for consideration, and Mr. Knowlton explained the object. He expressed the opinion that should the question come before the courts there would be no evidence available to the courts that any such authority existed.— The constitution prohibited banking until certain preliminary steps had been taken. The people must vote in favor of the abstract question; then the legislature must pass a law, and that law must then be sanctioned by a vote of the people; and the point made by Mr. Knowlton was, that the courts could not inquire into the question whether the act had been adopted by a popular vote or not. The fact of that vote, in order to make it available in a court, he maintained, should be declared by legislative authority.

Mr. Orton differed with the mover of the resolution upon the legal aspect of the question.— He deprecated the raising of such a question, unless there was obvious necessity for it. If the resolution should be adopted, it would imply a well grounded doubt, on the part of the Assembly, of the validity of our banking system, and could not fail to injure its credit. It would immediately be noticed by the bank reporters, and an injury might follow which could not be easily be repaired. He felt suspicious of the move, coming as it did from the western part of the state, where all were opposed to banks and bank paper. He regarded our banking law as the most perfect one in the world, and he believed, if not crippled, the system would, in five years from this time, pay a tax sufficient to support our state government.

Mr. Knowlton disclaimed any hostility to the banking law. The people had voted for it, and he had nothing to say against it; he only wished to place the system on a more secure basis, by a declaratory act which should establish the fact of its adoption, in a manner cognizable by the courts. Mr. Wright moved an amendment, to the effect that the subject be referred to the Judiciary committee, with instructions to report a bill in accordance with the suggestions made by Mr. Knowlton; which was adopted and the resolution passed.

An important matter was brought to notice by a bill to appropriate to Charles Wheeler a sum of money for services as assistant Sergeant at Arms of the Senate at the last session. It was claimed that he had received nothing for his services, and shown by others that nearly $1,700 were appropriated to the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate to pay himself and his assistants. The bill was rejected.

The system of employing legislative officers and assistants is a very loose one.

The chief Clerk and sergeant at Arms of each House, are the only officers of the kind known to the law, and they employ their assistants and are responsible to them for their pay, and money is appropriated to them for this purpose, and it is no new thing for those assistants to complain that they do not get their share of the money.— The system seems to be leaky somewhere.

A bill was passed making the State officers ex-officio members of the board of Regents of the University. Much time and but little wit were expended on the bill to tax dogs. The fact is, there is but little talent for waggery in the Assembly, judging from the efforts of to-day. Besides, it seems to me in bad taste to entertain lady visitors with such subjects. Albeit, some treated the matter seriously, and should the legislature offer a bounty on dog scalps taken within the limits of any incorporated village or city, they would do the handsome thing and promote the nocturnal quietude of all who have ears and nerves.

Mr. Bartlett's Resolutions on the subject of Slavery in the territory came up on their third reading, and, on motion of Mr. Hadley were referred to the committee appointed on Mr. Wright's resolutions on the same subject. An effort was made to have two added to the committee, but failed. There is a fair prospect that the territories in question will be organizsd, and perhaps become States, before Wisconsin makes up her mind how she would like to have it done. There is some surprise expressed here, that our Senators in Congress did not vote on "Bill Douglas," but I do not think it strange at all. The legislature has manifested a desire to instruct them in that matter, which is evidence that they are not satisfied with the instructions of 1849. And the senators cannot know what those instructions will be until they pass.

A bill to repeal the charter of the Newport Hydraulic company at Dell Creek, on the Wisconsin, came up, and after some discussion between Messrs. McIndoe, Orton, Remington, and others, on the constitutionality of the act proposed to be repealed and the power to repeal it, was ordered to a third reading.

At a late hour in the afternoon the Assembly had a noisy session in committee of the whole, spent mostly in efforts to rise, which finally carried and the House adjourned over till Thursday morning.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

In the District Court of the United States for the District of Wisconsin.

Louisa Hall vs. Harvey B. Burch and George E. Brown. In Equity:

MILLER, J.

This bill prays a decree vacating a certificate of sale, by the Marshal, made by virtue of an execution issued out of this Court, upon a judgment in favor of these defendants, against this complainant. The judgment was rendered at the January term, 1850; and, on the thirtieth day of April, of the same year, the judgment record was signed and filed. It is stated in the bill that the contract, upon which the judgment was founded, bore date the thirtieth day of December, 1848, but it was signed and delivered on the second day of January, 1849. The record of the suit at law, describes the contract of the thirtieth day of December, 1848. By virtue of an execution issued on said judgment, a tract of land containing about twelve acres, with the appurtenances, in Milwaukee county, was sold by the Marshal, to these defendants, in satisfaction of their judgment. These premises, this complainant claims to be exempt from sale, and prays that the said sale may be set aside, and the Marshal's certificate of sale be cancelled.

The pleadings and proofs in this cause, present four questions for the determination of the Court.

1. If the contract was made and executed on the second of January, 1849; but was antedated to a time, before the exemption law took effect, to-wit: the thirtieth day of December, 1848, that the right to the exemption was thereby waived.

2. That the complainant, who was the defendant in the judgment, was not in the actual occupancy of the premises, at the date of the judgment when the lien thereof attached; and that, by moving upon the premises, subsequently thereto, she could not destroy or interrupt the legal right the plaintiffs had acquired, to satisfaction of their judgment, by a sale upon an execution.

3. The complainant must show affirmatively, that she was in the occupancy of the premises; and was using them for agricultural purposes, at the time of the sale.

4. The defendants, in their answer, deny, on information and belief, that there exists any error or mistake, in the date of the contract, or that it was antedated; and they aver, that the contract was specially declared upon, in the suit at law, and that the judgment rendered thereon, is in this respect conclusive, in this proceeding.

In this country, every citizen has a right to acquire property, and also to dispose of it for all lawful and proper purposes. Statutes, such as those of limitations, to prevent frauds, and of exemption, are in every State, and are founded upon principles of justice and benevolence. The citizen may take advantage of such laws for his own protection, but he cannot be compelled to do so. The exemption of property from forced sale, is a personal privilege, conceded by the acts of the legislature, for the special benefit of a debtor; which he has a right to waive. This privilege is not to be adjudged waived, unless it appears to have been done affirmatively by the party, either expressly, or by refusal or neglect to comply with the conditions of the law. The antedating of a note or contract, in the absence of all proof of the object or reason therefor, to a time previous to the exemption law taking effect, should not be adjudged such a waiver. The exemption may be waived in the contract as in a lease. McKinny vs Reader 6 Watts Rep. 34; or by verbal consent at the time of the levy and sale, Hewes vs. Parkman 20 Pick. Rep. 90 (Minots Dig. 64 Sec. 24). Mickles vs. Towsly, 1 Cowen 114. Or by not claiming the exemption before or at the sale, Miller's Appeal 4 Harris 300— Weaver's Appeal 6 Id. 307: Hammer vs. Freese 7 Id. 307. In Miller's appeal, the party had not procured the land to be surveyed or set off to him previous to the levy or sale, which the Court decides to be a bar to a subsequent claim of exemption. In delivering the judgment, the Court remarks: "The omission to give notice would have the tendency of misleading creditors. The silence of the debtor during the whole course of the proceedings in execution, can scarcely under the circumstances be imputed to ignorance of the law. Ignorance of the law is not an excuse; and it is not for a debtor to plead that ignorance, when the provision of the law was one of great notoriety, and which conferred on him so substantial a favor. It is the gratuity of the law, which he ought to be satisfied to take, under the provisions and guards which the law granting it has imposed, and which are neither expressive, onerous or unreasonable. The provisions introduced into this act by legislative discretion, are not to be dispensed with by the debtor as useless, and are not to be disregarded by the Court in the construction and execution of the law." The mere antedating of a note is not a waiver or bar of the right of exemption.

The act to exempt a homestead from forced sale, approved July 29th, 1848, took effect in regard to debts or liabilities contracted, after the first day of January, 1849. This act is incorporated in the revision of the laws, and forms a part of chapter 102, Revised Statutes 540. By this act, "a homestead consisting of any quantity of land not exceeding forty acres used for agricultural purposes, and the dwelling house thereon and its appurtenances, to be selected by the owner thereof, and not included in any town plot, or city or village; or instead thereof at the option of the owner, a quantity of land not exceeding in amount one-fourth of an acre, being within a recorded town plot or city or village, and the dwelling-house thereon and its appurtenances; owned and occupied by any resident of the State, shall not be subject to forced sale on execution, or any other final process from a Court, for any debt or liability, contracted after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine." This section is the same in effect, as it regards the prohibition of sale, as if the words, "shall not be subject to forced sale," were substituted by, "shall be exempt from forced sale." The quantity, location and boundaries of the land, not exceeding forty acres, may be selected by the owner.

This land must be used for agricultural purposes, and the land, as well as the ¼ of an acre in a recorded town plat, or city, or village, must be owned and occupied by the debtor claiming the exemption. Actual occupancy is necessary to a homestead. A homestead is a place occupied by the owner thereof, as his residence. Real estate demised, is in the occupancy of the tenant; where it is vacant it is not occupied by any person, but is in the legal or constructive possession of the owner. The terms "owned and occupied," convey the exact meaning of a homestead, and leave no room for doubt or construction.

This construction given to the first section, is confirmed by subsequent sections of the act. By section three; "whenever a levy shall shall be made upon the lands or tenements of a householder, whose homestead has not been selected and set apart by metes and bounds, such house holder may notify the officer, at the time of making such levy, of what he regards as his homestead, with description thereof, within the limits above prescribed, and the remainder alone shall be subject to sale under such levy." By section four—"if the plaintiff in execution shall be dissatisfied with the quantity of land selected and set apart as aforesaid, the officer making such levy shall cause the same to be surveyed, beginning at a point to be designated by the owner, and set off in a compact form, including the dwelling house and its appurtenances. The householder, (as used in the third section,) whose homestead has not been selected, and set apart, may notify the officer of what he regards as his homestead; and by the fourth section, if the plaintiff in execution shall be dissatisfied with the quantity of land selected and set apart the officer making such levy shall cause the same to be surveyed. A householder must be an occupant, and the householder or occupant, must be the owner, whose homestead, consisting of a certain quantity of land, is to be selected and set apart by himself. The legislature authorized the exemption of a tract of land not exceeding forty acres, used by the owner and occupant thereof for agricultural purposes; and a lot in a city or village not exceeding a quarter of an acre, owned and occupied, by the debtor. They gave the party his option to own and occupy, and to have exemption of the village or city lot, or of the forty acres of land. The debtor cannot claim exemption as to both, but has the option as to either, upon which he may be an occupant. The first idea was to save a homestead for the farmer, the tiller of the soil; and the next was, for the resident of a city or village. If a man should not desire a homestead in the country, upon the conditions of the exemption law, he has the option to choose one in a city or village.

I do not presume, that the legislature intended to extend this exemption beyond the technical meaning of the words, "sale on execution or any other final process from a court, for any debt or liability contracted." These words here used are both technical and intelligible. It would be deemed a forced construction, to include trusts, or fiduciary obligations, such as those, of trustees, guardians, executors or administrators, in the category of debts and liabilities contracted; or to consider a decree in chancery, to relieve a party in cases of frauds and fraudulent trustees, an execution or final process.

This law makes bountiful provision for the debtor, in addition to the personal property exempted from sale; and it should receive a favorable construction in cases of honest and unfortunate debtors, such as this complainant. Where a debtor obtains the exemptions allowed by law, he is, in many instances, in the enjoyment of more comforts, and in much better circumstances, than his creditors. While benevolence is to be indulged, we should not disregard the rights of creditors, by overlooking the provisions of the law, in favor of the debtor, to be complied with on his part, to entitle him to this bounty.

This law is engrafted into, and forms a part of, the law of the state, for the collection of debts by judgment and execution; and must be construed and administered in connexion there with. The law relating to judgments, executions, exemption, sale and redemption, composes one section and must be construed as a whole.

When this homestead exemption law was enacted and took effect, and also, when this judgment was rendered, a judgment was a lien upon, and bound the lands, tenements and real estate, and chattles real of a debtor. The words "lands" and "real estate" by sec. 9, of chap. 4 revised statutes 59, shall be construed to include lands, tenements and hereditaments, and all rights thereto, and interests therein. Upon the thirtieth day of April, 1850, by the signing and filing of the judgment record, the judgment of these defendants against this complainant, became chargeable upon all her interest in the land of which the exemption is claimed; and which by law was then subject to be sold upon execution in satisfaction of that judgement. It is conceded and proven, that this complainant moved upon, and became the occupant of, this land in the month of May following, and after this judgement had attached. If she had not moved upon the land, she could not claim the exemption, as an occupant.

When the lien of a judgment has attached, there is no authority or power existing anywhere to disturb it. Under the laws of this state, the lien of judgments upon real estate can only be released voluntarily by the plaintiff, or discharged upon satisfaction by payment or sale. The lien cannot be disturbed, by the mere volition of a defendant. And it is believed that a law authorizing such a power would violate the provision, in the constitution of the United States, prohibiting the states from passing laws impairing the obligation of contracts. The cases of McCracken vs. Haywood, 2 Howard S. C. Reports 608, and Bronson vs. Kinzie 1 Id. 311, are full, of instruction upon this subject. If, in those cases, the remedy could not be restricted, surely the lien of a judgment cannot be disturbed. The Chief Justice, in Bronson vs. Kenzie, expressly confines their remarks upon limitations and exemptions, to contracts made and to be executed in the state. The contract in the case under consideration was made and was to be executed within this state, consequently we are not embarrassed with the question of the effect of this exemption upon contracts without the state. If the lien of a judgment could be disturbed, at the will of a defendant; laws for the collection of debts would virtually be abolished, which no legislature can constitutionally pass.

The exemption law does not declare how the homestead shall be held by the debtor; whether subject to, or discharged from, or independent of, the lien of the judgment; or whether as an estate in fee or for life. An act to secure the homestead to Orphans, approved Feb. 9, 1850, extending the provisions of the homestead exemption law to the infant children of a deceased debtor, sheds some light upon the subject. The homestead of the infant children is not to be sold by the executor or administrator of the deceased debtor's estate. The estate is, by law, to be settled in a resonable time, by the executor or administrator. The settlement is not supposed to have been extended to an indefinite period of time. The law does not provide that the infants upon attaining their majority, shall surrender the estate to the executor or administrator for distribution among the creditors of their deceased ancestor. There is no other meaning to be attached to the law, but that such estate as the ancestor had in the exempted property passed to the infant heirs independently of his debts. If such is the proper interpretation of that law, then the same must be applied to the one under consideration.

It has not been the policy of the American States, particularly in the West, to embarrass or clog, the alienation of real estate; but to encourage and facilitate it. All limited estates in fee are abrogated; and conveyances of lands are valid even if the granter should not be in possession.— Lands are abundant and cheap, and compose the principal capital of the country. For these reasons, together with the policy of advancing the growth and improvement of the country, lands are transferable with almost the same facility as personal property. By this homestead exemption law, probably one fourth of the improved and occupied real property in the state is now not subject to be sold upon execution; and if the debtor should hold the homestead subject to the lien of the judgments then rendered and also of all subsequent judgments, this amount of the capital of the country, is rendered unavailable for all purposes of commerce, or improvement of the country. As the state grows in population and commerce, this proportion of unavailable capital must increase. The owners of these exempted lands not being allowed to transfer them on account of the liens, nor to demise them, nor to move off them, under the penalty of a sale upon execution, they could not improve their own condition, or advance the wealth of the state. Such a state of things is inconsistent with the intention of the law, and the enterprise of the people. If debtors were thus bound to the land they could not appreciate the homestead exemption as a bounty. Such an occupancy is inconsistent with the policy of the country and negatives the idea of a homestead.

Personal property exempted from sale upon execution, continues the absolute property of the debtor, and may be disposed of by him, without regard to other or subsequent executions. Why should not the homestead be so held? In order to construe and administer this law, according to the benevolent intentions of the legislature, it is necessary to place the party, claiming its benefits, as nearly as may be, as in the case of exemption of personal property. Personal property is made chargeable for the debt, by a seizure upon execution; which by our law, is the first lien. When the levy is about to be made by the officer, the defendant and owner of personal property has the several articles, exempted by law from sale, set off to him, and they are not embraced in the levy. The levy upon personal property is a satisfaction, in whole, or in part, of the writ. But a levy upon real estate, where the judgment is a lien, is no satisfaction of the writ or judgment; it is a mere description and specification of the property for further proceedings by advertisement and sale—Shepard v. Rowe 14 Wend. 260. It is the judgment that holds the land, not the levy. None but the owner and possessor of personal property can claim the exemption, and he may waive it. In regard to real estate the judgment fixes the rights of all the parties, and controls the subsequent proceedings leading to the satisfaction. The judgment gives the plaintiff the right to an execution, without regard to exemption; and none but the owner and occupant of the land can prevent a sale upon the execution. Where there is no occupant there is no exemption. Where there is an occupant there may be an exemption. When a judgmnet is rendered, it is therefore a lien upon lands not occupied, for such lands are not within the description of lands exempted from sale. Judgments rendered against the occupants of lands failing within the description of lands embraced in the exemption law, are obtained by the plaintiffs with full knowledge of the right of the defendant to claim the exemption; and, as in executions issued to levy personal property, are subject to and conditional upon the exemption allowed by law. But if the exemption, in either case, should be waived, the sale is valid. The legal right to exemption is a law of the contract, binding equally upon both parties. One party gave the credit subject to the disability, and the other contracted the debt with the legal privilege. The opinion of the court, for these reasons, is, that to entitle a defendant to the benefit of the homestead exemption law, he must be the occupant of the land, at the date of the rendition of the judgment; and that, if he is not such occupant, the lien attaches, and cannot be afterwards disturbed, or postponed by his volition or act.

The decision of the second point being adverse to this complainant, it is not necessary, particularly, to notice the third and fourth points. But as the third point involves the construction of this law, it is our duty to give the views of this court upon it.

There is no doubt, but the owner of a homestead, who is the head of a family, may leave it temporarily in charge of a wife, or children, or servants; and notwithstanding such temporary absence, be an occupant or householder in the sense of the law. It is not the sense or intention of the law, to confine the body of the owner within the limits of his homestead; Woodward vs. Murray, 18 John. Rep. 400. But if he should move off with his family, leaving the premises vacant, and without the intention to return, he should be adjudged to have abandoned the occupancy and to have waived the exemption. The owner, or his agent, should be in the occupancy, when the execution comes, so that he may claim, and have set off, the extent of the homestead. In this case, the complainant left for the east on business, in the month of December, 1851, or early in that winter, and left a person in charge of the property; after sending off for safe-keeping the principal part of her furniture, leaving some trunks of clothing, and some other articles in the house, and intending to return in the spring following. She returned in the month of August, 1852. By the bill she, by her agent, knew of the sale by the Marshal, and notified the Marshal of her exemption. If this fact were proven, it, together with the occupancy, by a servant, would be a compliance with the law.

An important question arises from this discussion, how the homestead is settled upon the debtor, or passes to his alienee, beyond the reach of other judgments or executions? Personal property exempted is in the possession and use of the owner, and thereby, the officer and subsequent execution creditors have notice of the exemption, or that such property is the subject of exemption; but neither another officer or execution creditor can know that a certain lot of land has been exempted, or how many tracts of land a person may be the owner of, without some record. The owner might shift his occupancy to another tract, and baffle for a time, a creditor in the collection of his debt, by claiming another exemption. To obviate this difficulty and uncertainty, the legislature might provide, by law, for recording the execution and return, specifying the homestead exemption, as in cases of real estate seized upon attachment; but in the absence of such provision of law, the marshal may, at the instance of the defendant, specify the exemption in his return to the execution. It would be both embarrassing to creditors, and unsafe to debtors, if they should convey, demise, or move off their homesteads without some record evidence of its description and extent, together with the writ or process, in which it was assigned and allowed.

With a due regard to the rights of all parties, it is the duty of the court, to require persons claiming an exemption to comply with the law, in its substantial requirements. so that they may not unnecessarily embarrass officers, or improperly mislead creditors. In all legal proceedings, parties must plead in time, or be fixed by the judgment. So it is with all pirivilleges granted by law. The party claiming them must conform to the law, and at the proper time. If an officer, serving an execution, will not respect this law and allow the exemption when claimed, it is the duty of the defendant to apply to the court, the first opportunity; when an enquiry will be had and the proper corrective applied. I am not at all disposed to disturb a sale after the return of the process upon which it was made, unless upon fraud, oppression, or some substantial reason.

I entered upon this case under peculiar embarrassment, as it was the first case brought to my notice. under the homestead exemption law. It being more properly the business of the Supreme Court of the state, to construe this and other statutes of the state, it was peculiarly embarrassing to be the pioneer. Sympathy for the complainant should incline me towards her relief; but duty required me to construe this law according to my judgment, and so to administer it, that all persons may understand its principles and requirements. In order to make myself understood, I have gone over more ground than probably was necessary to the adjudication of this case; but this being a subject of immense interest to the whole people, I have, for the benefit of community, given the result of an earnest and laborious investigation. The legislature, in its wisdom, gave the people this law, and they left the courts, as in all other statutes, to construe and to apply it, and also to form precedents and rules for its administration. When it was enacted, an exemption of real estate. without limitation in amount, was a novelty, an experiment, to be tested by time and experience.

The shortest and most expeditious roads are bound to win. That the citizens of Milwaukee have been brought to this belief through their intercourse with eastern capitalists or by some other means is evidenced by the fact that they have abandoned, the idea of a north western connection by means of a Railroad to Lake Winnebago, and are taking their true strength of position in prosecuting their two western roads, the Milwaukee & Mississippi and Milwaukee & La Crosse and are relying upon the Lake Shore road through the northern lake ports to Green Bay to bring to them, or through their city the winter and other travel and business seeking and eastern market through a southern route.

GLEANINGS FROM THE MAILS.

OUR WHEAT CROP IN 1853.—From the best information we can obtain, (and we have spared no pains to be accurate,) the Wheat Crop of Outagamie County averaged 29 bushels to the acre; and this, too, with very indifferent tillage. The greatest yield per acre, was 38½ bushels; the smallest quantity threshed from a single acre was 17 bushels. Only one man's crop, so far as we can learn, was as small as the last named figure, and that was upon but a single acre.

The present state of the Produce Market, and the certainty of a general and bloody war in Europe, would seem to dictate to our farmers the importance of sowing a large amount of Spring Wheat. "Canada Club" is the best seed (we think) they can procure. It may be difficult to obtain it here. If so, let half a dozen farmers combine, and send for it this very winter.—Appleton Crescent.

☞ Macaulay in his history accuses Dryden, the satirist of the Whigs, of having sold his conscience for a pension, and bases the charge upon a grant made to the poet by James II, at the period of his conversion. Mr. Bell, in his recent life of Dryden, refutes the accusation. He has discovered that the grant made by James was only a renewal of the grant made by Charles II to the poet. Dryden's receipt, dated June 15, 1680, for the quarter ending with the Feast of the Annunciation, 1678–9, still exists.

The bitter octavo lately published in London against Mr. Disraeli, has received two notices of moment—one from the Press, from the pen, it is said, of Mr. Stafford O'Brien; the other in the Times, written by the author of "Essays from the Times." JUDGE HUBBELL PRESIDING.

Action for Damage sustained by Grading down Adjoining Lots.

FREDERICK KALCKHOFF vs. FRANCIS HUEBSCHMANN, et al.

The plaintiff declared in case for damage done to his lot and house, from grading down the adjoining land. He proved that the adjoining lot had been graded down some 30 feet, and by the reason of the caving in of the land of his lot, he had been greatly injured. He claimed that he had a legal right to the lateral support of the soil of the adjoining close, as it existed by nature, and that a disturbance of it, gave a right of action for the injury done. He claimed beyond that, that the defendant was a mere trespasser on the adjoining soil and could not justify as owner.

The defendant proved that he was alderman of the 2nd Ward, and the aldermen of that ward had directed the street to be graded and a temporary grade to be established by them; and that the cutting down was done accordingly; he also gave in evidence proceedings in laying a new street, in continuation of Tamarack Street, and proved that the grading done was within the lines of such street. He claimed that the street was a legal street, that it was the duty of the aldermen, as street commissioners, to render it passable; and that he was not individually responsible so long as he acted in good faith, and within the scope of the powers conferred by the charter. He further contended, that the plaintiff had no right in the adjoining premises, which would sustain an action. Other points were raised, but the case did not turn on them.

The court decided that the street was a legal street, at least as against the plaintiff, who did not complain of a trespass on his lands; that the street commissioners had authority to grade, and that although the action could be maintained by the plaintiff, against one not having the right of an owner of the land graded, yet it could not be maintained, against one having the right to such premises.

The court incidentally decided that the provision of the (old) charter for levying benefit tax, and appraising damages was void for uncertainty. The jury disagreed.

THE NEW ENGINE FOR No. 2.—A vast crowd assembled on the ice yesterday afternoon, near the foot of Spring Street, to witness the trial by the Fire Department, of the new engine built by E. B. HOWLAND, of this city, for company No. 2, to be stationed near the Market House in the 1st ward. Several of the other companies were on the ground (ice) in uniform, and No's 3, 4, and 6 with their engines.

The machine was subjected to numerous tests of its capacity, and, by the aid of the power of some 50 men applied to its double brakes, performed wonders, in one case throwing a stream of water through an 1¼ inch nozzle, to the distance of 165 feet! Its capacity as a supply machine was shown by its furnishing two other engines with water as fast as they could well get rid of it.

We congratulate our Milwaukee mechanic, Mr. Howland, on his success. So we need be no more dependant upon the east for fire engines than we are for locomotives.

"To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY—

Sir—It is not my wish to become notorious, neither is this letter written for the mere sake of writing, but to say, that your Ointment and Pills have cured me of one of the most disagreeable cutaneous diseases that flesh is heir to; which was considered by all who knew me to be entirely beyond the reach of medicine. For nine years, I was afflicted with a painful and troublesome sore leg, and after trying every medicine I had ever heard of without success, a friend brought me a couple of large boxes and pots of your medicines, which caused the sores on my leg to heal and I entirely regained my health to my agreeable surprise and delight, and to the astonishment of my friends.

(Signed) W. J. LANGLEY."

Senator Seward Speech.

We received on Wednesday evening, and have read with admiration, Mr. SEWARD's great speech in the U. S. Senate on the 17th, against the Nebraska bill. For compactness of logic, felicity of illustration, solemnity of appeal, and genuine eloquence, rising to an atmosphere far above and beyond partizan appeals, we think it fully equals, if not surpasses, any former effort of this distinguished and truly Northern Statesman. We shall lay it before our readers, commencing tomorrow. Meantime, as an earnest of what they will receive, we invite perusal of the following brief extract. Gov. Seward is speaking of the Compromise of 1850, and the assertion that it abrogates the Missouri Compromise:

> Will you maintain in argument that it was understood by the parties interested throughout the country, or by either of them, or by any representative of either, in either House of Congress, that the principle then established should extend beyond the limits of the territories acquired from Mexico, into the territories acquired, nearly fifty years before, from France, and then reposing under the guarantee of the Compromise of 1820? I know not how Senators may vote, but I know what they will say. I appeal to the honorable Senator from Michigan, [MR. CASS,] than whom none performed a more distinguished part in establishing the Compromise of 1850, whether he so intended or understood. I appeal to the honorable and distinguished Senator, the senior representative from Tennessee, [MR. BELL] who performed a distinguished part also. Did he so understand the Compromise of 1850? I appeal to that very distinguished—nay, Sir, that expression falls short of his eminence—that illustrious man, the Senator from Missouri, who led the opposition here to the Compromise of 1850. Did he understand that that Compromise in any way overreached or impaired the Compromise of 1850? Sir, that distinguished person, while opposing the combination of the several laws on the subject of California and the Territories, and Slavery, together, in one bill, so as to constitute a Compromise, nevertheless voted for each one of those bills, severally; and in that way, and that way only they were passed. Had he known or understood that any one of them overreached and impaired the Missouri Compromise, we all know he would have perished before he would have given it his support.
> Sir, if it was not irreverent, I would dare to call up the author of both of the Compromises in question, from his honored, though scarcely grass-covered grave, and challenge any advocate of this measure to confront that imperious shade, and say, that in making the Compromise of 1850, he intended or dreamed that he was subverting, or preparing the way for a subversion of his greater work of 1820. Sir, if that eagle spirit is yet lingering here over the scene of his mortal labors, and watching over the welfare of the Republic he loved so well, his heart is now moved with more than human indignation against those who are preverting his last great public act from its legitimate uses, not merely to subvert the column, but to wrench from its very bed the base of the column that perpetuates his fame.
> And that other proud and dominating Senator, who, sacrificing himself, gave the aid without which the Compromise of 1850 could not have been established—the Statesman of New England, and the Orator of America—who dare assert here, where his memory is yet fresh, though his unfettered spirit may be wandering in spheres far hence, that he intended to abrogate, or dreamed that, by virtue of or in consequence of that transaction, the Missouri Compromise would or could ever be abrogated?

☞ A private letter from Kossuth, dated London, Jan. 24, and addressed to a gentleman in this country, concludes by saying: "You shall soon hear of a titanic work on our part; of our heaping Ossa upon Pelion with but our nails for tools."

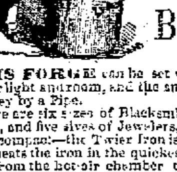
QUEEN'S PATENT



PORTABLE FORGE AND BELLOWS.

THIS FORGE can be set where most convenient for light and room, and the smoke conducted to the Chimney by a Pipe.

There are six sizes of Blacksmiths, Coppersmiths, &c. Forges, and five sizes of Jewelers, Dentists and Chemists.

It is compact—the Twier Iron is of a superior construction—heats the iron in the quickest manner—the wind escapes from the hot-air chamber through several holes in the Twier cap, which being under the fire, prevents the Twier from getting filled up with coal and ashes, as it will where there is but one opening. For out-door work and for safety in-doors, this Forge has great advantages over others, having two Slides by which the Forge can be closely shut up, and for safety and many purposes in-doors, (particularly for Jewelers, Dentists and for chemical operations) all the fumes from charcoal and acids being conducted through the smoke-pipe, or when open they are entirely out of the way; it is also so constructed that fire or water cannot injure the Bellows, which is in the cylinder under the fire bed.

It is the best Forge for Contractors on Railroads, Public Works, (for making repairs on the same,) and for emigration to new countries, ever offered to the public, and are successfully used by most of the Steamers and also by the U S. Army and Navy.

THE

Propose to pay Particular attention to Architectural Iron Work.

WE are prepared to Manufacture IRON FRONTS for Stores and Public Buildings, with the Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters.

These Shutters are the same that are now so generally used in New York, and may be put in any Window, Small or Large, and if arranged before erection of the building, may be used without in the least affecting the style of Architecture. They make the only perfect Fire Proof Shutters, and do not appear to the eye when rolled up

When desired we will furnish the Plan for Store Fronts, (with or without the Patent Shutter,) with estimate for the Cost of the work finished ready for delivery. To our Western friends we think this arrangement will be desirable, for they thus are enabled to know without experiment what the Front is to be, and what it is to cost.

When the Patent Shutters are used we will furnish a man to superintend the erection of the Iron Front and the setting of the Shutter.

NEW AND IMPROVED

SEWING MACHINES.

THE AMERICAN

Magnetic Swing Machine Co.,

NOW OFFER FOR SALE AT THEIR ROOMS

397 Broadway, N. Y.,

By far the most perfect and valuable Sewing Machines that have yet been invented.

THE PUBLIC are respectfully invited to call at the rooms of the Company, and examine the operation of the most superior machine ever presented to their notice.

It is the result of three separate inventors, each of whom dis inct in himself, claims originality. The first of whom is ELIAS HOWE, the first inventor of Sewing Machines, who introduced the shuttle movement, without which every machine is comparatively useless. The next was THOMPSON, who adapted the machine to certain portions of tailors' work, and Mr. COON, by means of the peculiar formation of the shuttle combined with other recent improvements of his own invention, has made a machine capable of doing any and all work that can be effected by means of the needle. The machine now offered for sale presents the following distinct and peculiar features:—

1st. It is extremely simple in its construction, and in no way liable to get out of order.

2d. The stitches are uniform, perfect, and present a beautiful appearance never before attained by any machine.

3d. The sewing done by this machine is warranted never to rip or ravel—a frequent cause of complaint heretofore from those owning machines of a different character.

4th. Any and all kinds of work can be done on our machine with unusual facility—silk, linen, cotton, or woolen fabrics and leather, each present the same beautiful appearance.

5th. By means of friction rollers the thread can be made tight or loose upon the cloth at the will of the operator.

6th. The length of the stitches can be graduated with mathematical exactness by the operator, from the fine and delicate stitch requisite in shirt making, linen bosoms, collars, ornamental work, etc., up to the coarsest stitch taken in sole leather, etc.

7th. The finest curvature can be worked, and beautiful designs of flowers, baskets of fruit, representations of beasts, birds, etc., can be as elegantly and elaborately worked by the aid of this machine as by the most skillful seamstress in existence.

The American Magnetic Sewing Machine Co., Have determined to sell the best Sewing Machine in existence, and have succeeded beyond their warmest anticipations. The speed of the machine is also a great feature that must secure the attention of the purchaser. It will take with ease

FIVE HUNDRED STITCHES PER MINUTE!

For further information please call at the rooms of the Company, or address the Secretary at the office, 397 Broadway. JAMES T. AMES, President.

Very Small Advance on the Foreign Cost,

They mean to make it the INTEREST of every judge of goods, to buy upon the following

TERMS:

CASH BUYERS will receive a discount of SIX per cent, if the money be paid in par funds, within 10 days from date of bill.

Uncurrent money will only be taken at its market value on the day it is received.

NOTICE.

On Wednesday, Oct. 14th, I shall have the Pedigree and Terms for the season of the Comet Morgan Horse (lately brought from Vermont by me) printed and bound, ready for those wishing the use of him the first season, to enter their names. Season to commence the second day of April, and end the 31st day of July. He is limited for the season at fifty-two mares, two of them my own. It is claimed by those owning the Black Hawk Stock that stands so high in Vermont, that the original Black Hawk was sired by the Old Sherman Morgan, the grand sire of my horse. If so, the same cross blood can be raised in this State, and at a far less expense than to import them from Vermont; that was one reason for my bringing Comet Morgan West. His pedigree is fully authenticated.

PROSPECTUS OF

Thos. H. Benton's Great Work.

THIRTY YEAR'S VIEW, of the workings of the American Government. Published by D. APPLETON & Co., New York, and sold exclusively by subscription.

During the last thirty years there has been no important public measure in which this active and distinguished statesman has not taken an able and decisive part, and been familiar with the influences, whether secret or public, which have urged forward or opposed each. He is therefore well qualified to write the history of this period.

This work will be completed in two volumes, the first of which will be published early in the year 1854, and will be brought down to the close of the administration of Gen. Jackson, and will thus form a complete work by itself, containing about 700 double column, royal 8 vo. pages, and a superbly engraved portrait of Senator Benton.

Price $2,50, payable on delivery of the book.

The book of subscription, together with specimen sheets, can be found at the law office of Messrs. TUCKER & GARVEY; and the Agent will soon give an opportunity to persons desirous of subscribing to do so at their residences and places of business throughout the city and county. jan12

HUNTER'S CELEBRATED

PREPARED BY

BANGOR, MAINE.

Proof Positive—Skeptics Read—Testimony! Testimony!!

HAMPDEN, Feb. 24, 1840.

Messrs. J. Curtis, Jr., & Co.—GENTLEMEN,

I have a word to say to you, in favor of Hunter's Cough Syrup. I have the past year used in my practice, two dozen bottles of it, which I had of you, and every bottle has done good. For eight years past, I have been in the practice of Medicine, and I never have found any thing, so well calculated to operate so favorably in all diseases of the lungs as that is. I have known a hard, distressing cough, cured in forty-eight hours, by using (in broken doses) one bottle of it. One case here in particular, of a man who was thought to have a seated consumption, troubled with a hard distressing cough. I let him have one bottle, and he had two more of your Agent, Mr. Whitmore. After using the 3 bottles, he has become well, and now labors every day. He told me lately, that Hunter's Cough Syrup was the means and only means of his cure. I have given it to infants, to children, to adults, and have the pleasure to inform you that it has done good in every case. I shall do all in my power to recommend it in the cases above named, not wholly for your benefit, but for the benefit of suffering humanity.

JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, AND all diseases arising from a Disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach Swimming of the Head, Hurried and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and great Depression of Spirits, CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN

BITTERS,

Prepared by Doct. C. M. Jackson,

AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,

120 Arch-st., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

[From the Boston Bee.]

The Editor said, Dec. 22d: "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

SCOTT'S WEEKLY.

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 2 "DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE.

The Hon. C. D. HINELINE, Mayor of the City of Camden N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which the came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing.

"If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver, and nervous system the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition, and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally.—This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favor, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular Physicians of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums combined, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quiet approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will cure Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, no one can doubt, after using it as directed. It acts specifically upon the stomach and liver—it is preferable to calomel in all bilious diseases—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Females or Infants with safety and reliable benefit, at any time.

LOOK WELL TO THE MARKS OF THE GENUINE.

They have the written signature of C. M. JACKSON upon the wrapper, and the name blown in the bottle, without which they are spurious.

PATENT MEDICINES

DR. URBAN'S

ANTI-BACCHANALIAN ELIXIR:

A Safe and Sure Remedy for the Cure of INTEMPERANCE.

IT is not in the least injurious to the system. It is pleasant to the taste, and will cure the hardest cases of intemperance. We warrant it, in all cases, if taken according to directions. It destroys the desire for all ardent spirits when strictly taken according to directions, and will restore the individual to the same state of sobriety in which he was before he ever drank a drop of the ardent, and he will not have the least desire for intoxicating drinks.

Intemperance is a disease; and as such the greater the excess in drinking, the more speedily is the disease developed, and to such the Elixir is presented as the balm of Gilead—the oil of consolation, peace and perfect restoration.

The more fully developed is the disease the more salutary and powerful the effects of this Elixir, at once destroying the appetite for spirits, and restoring the tone of the stomach to as healthy an action as it was before drinking a drop of ardent spirits; and when intemperance has assumed this diseased form, reason is measurably dethroned, the will to a certain extent becomes ungovernable, until often, alas! many have passed the bounds of sober restraint, and though they may desire, in their sober moments, to abandon the use of that which is so rapidly proving their bane, they cannot, unaided, and no aid has ever been tendered such, with success, until the discovery of Dr. Urban's never failing Anti-Bacchanalian Elixir; since which time none are left without excuse, as the means necessary to destroy the taste, and again enthrone reason, bringing the will into perfect subjection, by extracting the poisonous sting and temptation of the adder, are placed within every man's reach: those, therefore, who hereafter fill the grave of the drunkard must do so by choice, and not of necessity—it matters not how near it you may now be.

As the Elixir is a most powerful purifier of the blood, the seat of all diseases, it has been used with great success, and is highly recommended in cases of Delirium Tremens, Dyspepsia, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, Liver Complaints, General Debility, Piles, and all kinds of Fevers. It is the best alterative known.

The Anti-Bacchanalian is neatly put up and labelled, with full directions accompanying each bottle. Price $3 per bottle. On the receipt of the above sum it will be sent, free of charge, to any part of the United States. All letters to be prepaid. To be had from all the principal Druggists in the United States.

URBAN & DIDLAKE, 35 Third Street, Louisville, Ky.

Dr. Urban's Vegetable Fever and AGUE POWDERS:

The only sure remedy ever known for Chills and Fever, and warranted to cure, in all cases, if taken according to directions.

It cures, when taken according to directions, in TWENTY MINUTES, leaving no Fever after the Chill; very seldom requiring more than ONE DOSE to make a PERMANENT CURE. A great number of cases, from two to five years standing, have been CURED with the FIRST DOSE, and the Chill has never, as yet, returned. The beauty of this medicine is, that it stops the Chill in TWENTY MINUTES, or less, and the patient will be entirely clear from Fever after the Chill, which is not the case when any other medicine is used. It has superseded all other preparations wherever it has been introduced.

Read what the Editors of the Louisville Democrat say from their own observation:

"Dr. Urban's medicine for the cure of chills and fever has effected some wonderful cures in our own midst. A young man who has resided for several years in Louisiana, reached New Albany a few weeks since, weak and emaciated—literally worn out physically, with long continued chills and fever. He made a short stay at the house of Judge Smith, where his old disease continued with no less severity than at home in Louisiana. Having exhausted almost every remedy known to the medical profession, he procured a box of Dr. Urban's celebrated medicine, and after taking two powders was entirely relieved and restored to health. He has been well ever since—says his health has not been as good for several years, and is now fast regaining his former vigor and the rosy cheeks he was wont to wear."

This medicine can be had at the manufacturers Depot, 65 Third St., between Main and Market, Louisville Ky. wholesale and retail. URBAN & DIDLAKE.

On the receipt of $1 the Powders will be sent, free of charge, to any part of the U. States. It may also be obtained of all the principal Druggists in the country.

HUNTER'S MEDICAL MANUAL AND HAND BOOK FOR THE AFFLICTED—Containing an outline of the origin, progress, treatment and cure of every form of disease, contracted by promiscuous sexual intercourse, by self-abuse, or by sexual excess, with advice for their prevention, written in a familiar style avoiding all medical technicalities, and everything that would offend the ear of decency, from the result of some twenty years successful practice, exclusively devoted to the cure of diseases of a delicate or private nature.

To which is added, receipts for the cure of the above disease, and a treatise on the causes, symptoms and cure of the Fever and Ague, for twenty-five cents a copy; six copies one dollar; will be forwarded to any part of the United States, by mail, free of postage. Address, postage paid, Cosden & Co., Publishers, or "box 196, Post Office, Philadelphia."

"This is, without exception, the most comprehensive and intelligible work published on the class of diseases of which it treats. Avoiding all technical terms, it addresses itself to the reason of its readers. It is free from all objectionable matter, and no parent, however fastidious, can object to placing it in the hands of his sons. The author has devoted many years to the treatment of the various complaints treated of, and 'with too little breath to puff,' and 'too little presumption to impose,' he has offered to the world at the merely nominal price of 25 cents, the fruits of some twenty years most successful practice."—HERALD.

"No teacher or parent should be without the knowledge imparted in this invaluable work. It would save years of pain, mortification and sorrow to the youth under their charge."—PEOPLE'S ADVOCATE.

A Presbyterian clergyman in Ohio, in writing of "Hunter's Medical Manual" says: "Thousands upon thousands of our youth, by evil example and the influence of the passions, have been led into the habit of self-pollution without realizing the sin and fearful consequences upon themselves and their posterity. The constitutions of thousands who are raising families have been enfeebled, if not broken down, and they do not know the cause or the cure. Any thing that can be done to enlighten and influence the public mind as to check, and ultimately to remove this wide-spread source of human wretchedness, would confer the greatest blessing next to the religion of Jesus Christ, on the present and coming generations. Intemperance, (or the use of intoxicating drinks,) though it has slain thousands upon thousands, is not a greater scourge to the human race.—Accept my thanks on behalf of the afflicted, and, believe me, your co-worker in the good work you are so actively engaged in."

One copy will be forwarded (securely enveloped and postage paid,) on receipt of 25 cents, or six copies for $1. Address, COSDEN & CO., Publishers, Box 196, Philadelphia.

CHERRY PECTORAL.

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS

BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH,

CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

This remedy is offered to the community with the confidence we feel in an article which seldom fails to realize the happiest effects that can be desired. So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous the cases of its cures, that almost every section of the country abounds in persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. When once tried, its superiority over every other medicine of its kind, is too apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs, which are incident to our climate.

Nothing has called louder for the earnest enquiry of medical men, than the alarming prevalence and fatality of consumptive complaints, nor has any one class of diseases had more of their investigation and care. But as yet no adequate remedy had been provided, on which the public could depend for protection from attacks upon the respiratory organs, until the introduction of the CHERRY PECTORAL. This article is the product of a long, laborious, and I believe successful endeavor, to furnish the community with such a remedy. Of this last statement the American people are now themselves prepared to judge, and I appeal with confidence to their decision. [illegible]
